

Identification of Shoreline flora

Swamp: wetlands that is inundated in the spring and that is dominated by shrubs and trees.

1 - red maple

2 - silver maple

3 - Japanese knotweed

4 - cottonwood

5 - speckled alder

6 - white ash

7 - alternate leaved dogwood

Wet prairies: wetlands that are dominated by sedge and grass species.

8 - Scirpus sp.

9 - myrica gale

10 - Carex sp.

11 - Cephalanthus sp.

12 - Juncus sp.

13 - common reed

14 - common canary reed

15 - broadleaf cattail

16 - narrowleaf cattail

Identification of shoreline flora

Marshes and aquatic beds: Wetlands where water is above ground most of the time. They are dominated by emerging, floating and submerged plants.

17 - purple loosestrife

18 - flowering rush

19 - blue flag iris

20 - broad leafed arrowhead

21 - Eurasian watermilfoil

22 - Canada Elodea

23 - water chestnut

24 - frogbit

25 - vallisneria

26 - potamoget sp.

27 - sparganium sp

28 - fragrant water-lily

29 - variegated pond-lily

30 - duck weed